THE POWER OF PROCESS IN STORYTELLING
with Richard Weingartner
Tuesday, January 7, 7:30–9 p.m.

How do you start an original work? This interactive workshop will explore using life experience as a way to open the door to storytelling. Participants will discover the power of their own journeys as a way to connect with other people's lives.

ED MASCARI JAZZ DUO
featuring Rebecca Wellons
Sunday, January 12, 3 p.m.-4 p.m.

Jazz Pianist Ed Mascari has teamed up with neighbor and Wayland Middle School Band Director, Rebecca Wellons. They will present a one-hour concert featuring a selection of jazz tunes from the American Songbook (think "Night and Day," "Over the Rainbow," "Wave," and "Take Five") in a live performance in the library's Raytheon Room. Their musical style is energetic and engaging. These two performers have so much fun playing together that audiences of adults and young people find themselves smiling and tapping their feet!

THE PROGRESS PRINCIPLE: JOY AND CREATIVITY AT WORK
Tuesday, February 4, 7:30-9 p.m.

What makes people happy, motivated, productive and creative at work? In this talk, Professor Teresa Amabile will discuss discoveries from research that she recently completed with her collaborator and husband, Steven Kramer, Ph.D. Drawing upon the daily diaries of dozens of professionals in seven companies, she will show how everyday events at work can make all the difference for your well-being and performance. Teresa Amabile is a professor and director of research at Harvard Business School.

NEEDLEWORK/ HANDWORK GROUP

The next meetings of the library's Needlework/ Handwork group will be Wednesdays, January 8 and February 12, at 10 a.m. in the Raytheon Room.

GOT AN E-READER OVER THE HOLIDAYS? Borrow Library E-Books!

Here's how. If your device can browse the internet:
1. Go to: http://digital.minlib.net
2. Sign in with your library card and PIN.
3. Browse or search for eBooks and audiobooks.
4. When you find a book you want, click on the title and select "Borrow."
5. Start reading immediately by clicking the "Read" button or visit your "Bookshelf" to download. Titles will automatically expire at the end of the lending period.

For audiobooks, there's another step. If you can go to an app store on your device, find the app for OverDrive Media Console. If you can't, go to digital.minlib.net. Click on "Help" and then on "software." Download the Console. You should now be able to go to your account and download your audiobook.

If your device isn't on the internet, you can also use OverDrive Media Console to download e-books, but with the "Read" button, you can generally skip this step for a more seamless experience.

Donate Books!

Admit it: you'll never read them again, and you could use the space. Donate those books to the Friends of the WPL!

POETRY WORKSHOP

The next meetings of the Wayland Poetry workshop will be on Thursdays January 16 and 30, at 2:00 p.m.

DELIVERY FOR HOME-BOUND PATRONS

Our staff will arrange for library materials to be delivered to the homes of citizens who are unable to get to the library due to infirmity. To request this service, please call the Circulation Department at 508-358-2311.

LANGUAGE LEARNING APP

Mobile device users can take advantage of the library's Mango Languages subscription and learn languages on the go by using Mango Mobile Library Edition for Android and Apple devices. The app gives access to all the Mango language courses offered through our library. It's available for free from the Mango website.

MORE LANGUAGE LEARNING WITH ROCKET LANGUAGES

Get fully downloadable high quality mp3 interactive audio language lessons from our library website. Go to "Research Databases" and look under the "Language" heading. Fourteen languages are available.

FIND ANYTHING ANYWHERE

You've looked up a novel on the online catalog. The author's last name begins with W. As you head to the far end of the north wing of the library and the end of the fiction alphabet, your eye is caught by a classical music CD and you stop to look it over. Then you notice a neighbor of yours browsing the DVDs. You chat awhile and she recommends a movie, which isn't in, but you find another one you've wanted to see for a long time. Finally, you make your way to the last shelf of novels, and realize you've completely forgotten the name of the author you're looking for. You start to despair as you contemplate the long trek back to the catalog computer, when your eye is caught by a small, black rectangle mounted on the wall by the windows. It's an iPad, set to the online catalog. Flooded with relief, you type in the title—The Blood of Heaven—and see that the author's name is Wascom. You check it out, take it home, and discover that it's a terrific book. And it was so easy to find.

BOOK GROUPS FOR JANUARY (AND FEBRUARY)

The January Noontime group was canceled due to inclement weather. Check the website to find out when we will reschedule the discussion of Jane Austen's Northanger Abbey. Our selection for February is the acclaimed novel by Arundhati Roy, The God of Small Things, which we'll discuss on Friday, February 7.

On Monday, January 13, at 7 p.m., the Evening group turns its gimlet eye on The Blood of Heaven by Kent Wascom. You still have time for this one. And if you regret being unable to meet at noon in February to discuss an excellent Indian novel, you can discuss another excellent Indian novel on Monday, February 3, at 7 p.m., namely A River Sutra by Gita Mehta.

Both book groups are open to anyone from anywhere, no registration required. All the books are available at the library.

Great Decisions Program

Do you enjoy discussing current events and world politics with a group of people? Participate in the 2014 Great Decisions Program, the centerpiece of the longest-running civic education program in the United States devoted to foreign affairs, empowering readers to discuss global issues shaping U.S. foreign policy and the world. Topics will include Defense Technology, Israel and the U.S., Turkey's Challenges, Islamic Awakening, Energy Independence, Food and Climate, China's Foreign Policy, and U.S. Trade Policy. The first session is Friday, March 7, from 9:15 to 11:30 a.m. in the Raytheon Room. The topic will be Defense Technology.

January Exhibit Photographs by Members of the Happy Hollow 2012 & 2013 Photography Club

The January Raytheon Room Exhibit will feature images by students from Happy Hollow School. In 2011, Happy Hollow received a grant from the Wayland Public Schools Foundation to purchase eight simple digital cameras for the purpose of exposing students to the art of digital photography. In total, 72 fifth graders from the classes of 2012 and 2013 participated in the club, learning about composition: subject, how to frame it, lighting, editing and printing.

Your Smartphone Can Be Your Library Card!

Just install the CardStar app onto your smartphone as you would any other app. Once your library card number is on your smartphone….you're good to go!

Here's how to install the app:

1. Open CardStar and touch [+] to add a new barcode.
2. Under Select Merchant, touch and expand the Merchant menu.
3. Search for and select Minuteman Library Network.
4. Type in your library card number. Touch the checkmark on the top right.

Please try it out at one of our self check-out machines!

January Foyer Exhibit by Julia Blake

"After several years away from the easel, I have recently begun to paint again. Acrylic is my preferred medium as I work across many styles from abstract to figure. I have a preference for vivid colors, high contrast, bold strokes and diverse subjects. After careful compositional planning, I paint in a deliberate and fast manner without overthinking each stroke. My pieces have multiple layers of meaning utilizing symbolism and metaphor. I work from my home studio in Wellesley, Massachusetts."

BECOMING A VOLUNTEER TUTOR

Have you ever thought about tutoring someone in English? We always have a waiting list of learners who need help. Program Director Ginny Steel is currently enrolling prospective tutors for the five-session course that starts on Feburary 24. The class will meet at the Wayland Library on five consecutive Monday mornings, 9:30 a.m. - 12:30 p.m. The training is free, although it is necessary to purchase a textbook for about $20. Volunteers will work one-on-one with adults who want to improve their abilities to speak and write English. For more information or to enroll in the tutor-training course, you can phone Ginny Steel at 508-358-7517 or email her at virginia@thesteels.com.

DO YOU HAVE A REVOLUTIONARY PATRIOT IN YOUR FAMILY TREE?

There will be a DAR (Daughters of the American Revolution) genealogical workshop on Saturday, Feb 22nd from 1 to 4 p.m. in the Raytheon Room. Volunteer genealogists will be available to help women who might be interested in finding their link to a Revolutionary War Patriot and joining the DAR. The DAR is a women's service organization that honors and preserves the legacy of our patriotic ancestors. There are 170,000 members in nearly 3,000 chapters world-wide. Please RSVP if you would like to attend this workshop to WaysideGeni@yahoo.com.

SLAVERY AT THE TIME OF REVOLUTION

In conjunction with Wayland's 375th celebrations, Jane Sciacca of the Wayland Historical Society will give a talk about slavery in Wayland (then Sudbury) in the 18th century, a little-known chapter of our town's history. "Negro" slavery was legal in Massachusetts until after the American Revolution. Many of our town's most prominent citizens were slave owners, including the minister, doctors, town fathers, and veterans of the War for Independence. Jane will talk about existing slave biographies and other documentary evidence for slavery in Sudbury, including a map of slave households, a bill of sale, and an emancipation paper.

MOZART'S COSI FAN TUTTE: A GUIDED TOUR

Così Fan Tutte is the third and last of Mozart's operatic collaborations with librettist Lorenzo DaPonte. The opera has moments of laugh-out-loud comedy as well as great tenderness as it explores the myths and realities of fidelity between lovers. On Wednesday, April 23, at 7:30 p.m., opera enthusiast Phil Radoff will walk us through this Mozart masterpiece in advance of the Metropolitan Opera's production in high definition at many theaters in Metrowest.

WAYLAND AT THE DAWN OF THE REVOLUTION

On April 19, 1775, over 300 men from Sudbury (modern Wayland and Sudbury) marched off toward Concord to participate in the opening battles of the American Revolution. Great Decisions 2014 TURKEY'S CHALLENGES

Turkey: a nation at a crossroads, a bridge over an ever-growing chasm between the East and West. Turkey's first Prime Minister Kemal Ataturk envisioned a modern, democratic nation-state built on the ashes of the Ottoman Empire with strong ties to Europe, not the Middle East. But as the clashes between secular and religious groups and the recent protests in Taksim Square show, the soul of Turkey is still very much up for grabs.

Friday, April 18
9:15 a.m.

DANTE, MILTON AND THE DEVIL

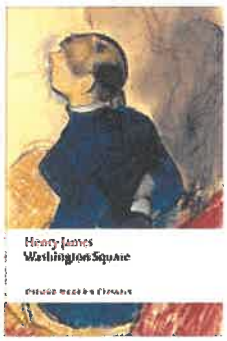
Classics scholar Frank Smith will explore "Dante, Milton, and the Devil," focusing on that great adversary in Western literature. Smith will discuss the characterization of the Devil as he appears in Dante's "Inferno" and the first four books (chapters) of Milton's "Paradise Lost," as well as the art inspired by them.

April 8, 15 and 22 1-3 p.m.
Raytheon Room

FOYER ART SPACE AVAILABLE

We have several vacancies in our upcoming calendar for the exhibition space in the main library foyer. If you are a fine artist who would like to display some of your work, please contact Jim Zebrowski at the library (508-358-2311).

LIBRARY BOOK GROUPS



Noontime:
The next meeting is Friday, May 2 and the book is Washington Square by Henry James.

Evening:
Alexander Yates's Moondogs is up for discussion on Monday, April 7 at 7 p.m.

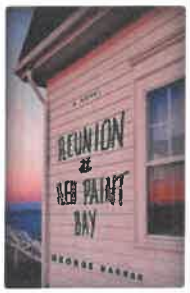
Books are available at the library. No registration is required—just show up and talk.

Foyer Exhibit LEAH LITIN: PIECEMEAL

When someone works piecemeal, it is defined as doing something gradually or piece by piece. Alternatively it can mean tearing something into fragments. Leah's work combines both aspects: she creates layers using paint, papers, and textural objects. She tears things apart and puts them back together in a new way. She also uses fabric in many of her pieces because of the added richness of fabric's patterns, colors and texture. This exhibit includes paper and fabric collages.

WAYLAND AUTHOR GEORGE HARRAR



Local author George Harrar will join the Evening Book Group for a discussion of his latest novel, Reunion at Red Paint Bay. In this tense thriller, a small-town editor and his family do psychological battle with a mysterious stalker.

Monday, May 5
7 p.m.

ARTISTS OF PLACE WITH JUDY SCHURGIN
Monet, Homer and O'Keeffe

Mark your calendars--Judy Schurgin will return for three Tuesday afternoons in May to talk about three important artists, Claude Monet, Winslow Homer, and Georgia O'Keeffe, who were deeply inspired by particular landscapes near their homes, notably Giverney, Prout's Neck, and Abiquiu. This series will focus on the life and works of these innovative and influential artists.

May 6: Claude Monet
May 13: Winslow Homer
May 20: Georgia O'Keefe

1-3 p.m. in the Raytheon Room

Corsican Winemaking and Basement Beermaking with Ken Ridout

Ken will shares tales from a previous life when he worked in a winery in Corsica, France, along with the back-story of his Corsican connection. Now he keeps fermentation in his life with home brewing. Ken's adventures in fermentation began on a leave of absence from the Carnegie Mellon physics Ph.D. program in 1995. He may or may not still be on that leave of absence, but he is currently a physics teacher and science department head at Wayland High School, where he has been teaching for six years.

HELP THE LIBRARY AND EARN COMMUNITY SERVICE TIME

The Friends of the Library are looking for high school students to move books for our sale from the freight shed in the Library parking lot to the Large Hearing Room in the Town Building on Sunday, April 27 at noon, and to arrange boxes in the Large Hearing Room on Tuesday, April 29 at 7 p.m. Volunteers will earn two hours of community service. No car required for either job—just a strong back! If interested, please contact Anne Heller at 358-4515 or Pam Mauer at 358-5432.

Raytheon Room Exhibit: Wayland High School Art
Words and Art

Each piece of art is inspired by the student to accompany their work. The exhibit includes drawings, paintings, color and design work along with photos and some mixed media pieces.

COMING TO THE LIBRARY THIS MONTH ON DVD

Anchorman 2: Ron Burgundy continues his legendary media rise.
At Middleton: Two single parents meet and mingle on a college campus tour.
Bastards: A suicide exposes a rift between brother and sister.
Bettie Page Reveals All! The Legendary pinup tells her story.
Father Brown: The Complete Collection: Finally—all the crime-solving priest's adventures in one package.
Dirty Wars: Journalist Jeremy Scahill rakes the muck on U.S. military skullduggery.
Flowers in the Attic: Heather Graham probes dark family secrets.
Invisible Woman: Ralph Feinnes as Charles Dickens in tortured, illicit amour.
Let the Fires Burn: Examination of the notorious Philly bombing.
Philomena: Judi Dench in search of her lost Irish son.
Punk Singer: Kathleen Hanna, prototypical Riot Grrrl.
Ripper Street: Season 2: More nefarious doings in the streets of Victoria London.
Secret Life of Walter Mitty: Based—very loosely—on the James Thurber story.

Great Decisions 2014 ISLAMIC AWAKENING

Is U.S. foreign policy adapting successfully to all of the changes in the region? The aftermath of the Arab Spring has resulted in unforeseen changes in the political landscape in many countries, especially regarding the role of Islam and democracy. How have the countries in the Maghreb reacted, including Tunisia, where the Arab Spring began? Is U.S. foreign policy adapting successfully to all of the changes in the region?

REFERENCE LIBRARIANS: HELPING YOU MAKE SENSE OF IT ALL

Well, maybe not your life. You need another professional for that. But we can help you with that big, unwieldy mess known as the World Wide Web. Reference librarians know those Internet nooks and crannies that you may have missed. We can pull up the website you need, help you separate the wheat from the chaff in a Google search, or direct you to one of our many excellent databases. We'll also help you with that small, unwieldy mess known as an e-reader. We keep up with the changes; we've learned the ropes. And if—incredibly—all you want is just a good book to read, look no further than the reference desk. Because we find books, too.

FREE MUSIC DOWNLOADS from the Library

Armed with only a library card, Wayland residents can now download great free, legal music via the Wayland Library's subscription to the Freegal Music Service. Each library cardholder qualifies for three free down-loads per week. Songs are DRM-Free and compatible with all MP3 players and computers. Freegal gives access to three million songs from over 10,000 music labels from 65 different countries, including Sony Music's entire catalog. There are mobile apps for Apple and Android devices, too! Go to waylandlibrary.org to find out how to use this great new free service.

New England Notebook with Ted Reinstein from Chronicle

Come spend the evening with journalist and author Ted Reinstein. Ted is a longtime, award-winning reporter for "Chronicle," Boston's celebrated—and the nation's longest-running—nightly TV newsmagazine. In June, 2013, Globe Pequot Press released his first book, "New England Notebook: One Reporter, Six States, Uncommon Stories," a collection of Ted's most memorable and favorite stories drawn from over fifteen years of reporting from every corner of New England. According to Ted, the program covers "the best of the best—my all-time most favorite people and places in New England." The talk is highlighted with photos from the book, many the work of some of the region's most talented and successful photographers. After the talk, Ted will take questions from the audience, and then happily sign copies of his book, which will be for sale.

GREAT DECISIONS

Energy Independence Friday, June 6, 9:15-11:30 a.m.
Energy independence, by taking the bargaining chip of oil dependence off the table, would be good for American foreign policy. But the very technological advances that make independence possible have created a dilemma for lawmakers. In a government with fixed resources, should the U.S. encourage more traditional fuel production or invest in the young technology of renewable resources?

Food and Climate Friday, June 20, 9:15-11:30 a.m.
Even as a sixth of the world's population suffers from chronic hunger, a changing climate threatens to wreak havoc on already insecure and vulnerable populations. As food and water become scarce and once fertile land becomes barren, the U.S. finds itself faced with new challenges in securing the globe. The U.S. is getting ready, but can it lead the way to climate reform?

LIBRARY LAPTOPS AND IPADS

Want to do some work on the computer but don't want to be tethered to a table? The WPL has four Chromebook notebooks and four iPads for use here in the library. Get a notebook, find a comfortable spot (perhaps in one of our comfy new chairs), and check your email, do some word processing or spreadsheets courtesy of Google Docs. Print what you need on our new wireless color printer. Or pick up an iPad and surf the Web. Both devices are small and light enough for any size lap, and the notebooks are compatible with your flash drive (in case you want to save something). What's more, they'll work anywhere in the building. Enjoy the freedom!

BOOK YOUR TRIP ON NPR

When you take off this summer, what will you take to read? Get some great ideas at www.npr.org/series/320361610/book-your-trip. That's where NPR staff cite their favorite titles featuring planes, trains, automobiles and other modes of transport (including bikes, dragons, and giant peaches). Even if you're staying home, these books will take you away.

NONFICTION BOOK GROUP: TERRIFIC UPCOMING TITLES

Led by our own Nancy McMenemy-McColm, the group meets in the Raytheon Room from 7 to 9:00. Books are available at the library, and anyone is welcome.

July 7: Trying Not to Try by Edward Slingerland
There was so much to say about our inaugural title that we've scheduled an additional session to discuss it.

August 18: Behind the Beautiful Forevers by Katherine Boo
In this brilliant, breathtaking book by the Pulitzer Prize winner and New Yorker writer, a bewildering age of global change and inequality is made human through the dramatic story of families striving toward a better life in a makeshift settlement in the shadow of Mumbai's luxury hotels.

September 15: The Geography of Bliss by Eric Weiner
What happens when a professed grump goes looking for the happiest places on earth? With a beguiling mixture of travel, psychology, science and humor, journalist Weiner investigates not what happiness is, but where it is.

October 20: Mastermind by Maria Konnikova
No fictional character is more renowned for his powers of thought and observation than Sherlock Holmes. But is his extraordinary intellect merely a gift of fiction, or can we learn to cultivate these abilities ourselves, to improve our lives at work and at home? We can, says psychologist and journalist Maria Konnikova, and in Mastermind she shows us how.

November 17: Book of Ages by Jill Lepore
Lepore's life of Jane Franklin, with its strikingly original vantage on her remarkable brother, Ben (who wrote more letters to her than to anyone else), is at once a wholly different account of the founding of the United States and one of the great untold stories of American history and letters: a life unknown.

NEW ACTIVITY PASSES

We are offering two new passes, one for the Pawtucket Red Sox and the other for the USS Constitution Museum. Each Pawtucket Red Sox pass can be used to purchase up to five General Admission tickets for $4.00 per ticket, or six General Admission tickets at $3.50 per ticket. See the schedule and read more at the PawSox website at the Minor League Baseball website, www.milb.com. The USS Constitution Museum provides free entry into the USS Constitution Museum for up to nine people. Learn more about the museum at: www.ussconstitutionmuseum.org. All our activity and museum passes are provided by the Friends of the Wayland Library.

JULY EXHIBITS

The Raytheon Room will feature Arts Wayland Photography Show. An artists' reception is planned for July 21 at 6 p.m.

The work of David Eggers will be in the foyer.

NONFICTION BOOK GROUP: TERRIFIC UPCOMING TITLES

Led by our own Nancy McMenemy-McColm, the group meets in the Raytheon Room from 7 to 9:00. Books are available at the library, and anyone is welcome.

August 18: Behind the Beautiful Forevers by Katherine Boo
In this brilliant, breathtaking book by the Pulitzer Prize winner and New Yorker writer, a bewildering age of global change and inequality is made human through the dramatic story of families striving toward a better life in a makeshift settlement in the shadow of Mumbai's luxury hotels.

September 15: The Geography of Bliss by Eric Weiner
What happens when a professed grump goes looking for the happiest places on earth? With a beguiling mixture of travel, psychology, science and humor, journalist Weiner investigates not what happiness is, but where it is.

October 20: Mastermind by Maria Konnikova
No fictional character is more renowned for his powers of thought and observation than Sherlock Holmes. But is his extraordinary intellect merely a gift of fiction, or can we learn to cultivate these abilities ourselves, to improve our lives at work and at home? We can, says psychologist and journalist Maria Konnikova, and in Mastermind she shows us how.

November 17: Book of Ages by Jill Lepore
Lepore's life of Jane Franklin, with its strikingly original vantage on her remarkable brother, Ben (who wrote more letters to her than to anyone else), is at once a wholly different account of the founding of the United States and one of the great untold stories of American history and letters: a life unknown.

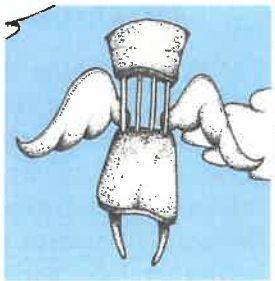
GARDEN TO VASE: BRINGING THE OUTSIDE IN
Wednesday, September 24 7-9 p.m.

This workshop with Trish Scozzafava will open your eyes to what's available in your garden for flower arrangements. Learn to make seasonal arrangements from branches, foliage and flowers from what you see in nature. No need to buy expensive florist blooms when you can capture beautiful naturalistic arrangements by simply cutting from your own yard. Everyone has material to choose from if you learn to see nature's seasonal bounty.

Introducing the ARMCHAIR TRAVEL BOOK GROUP

This group is for folks interested in going 'round the world through shared reading. We'll explore works by all kinds of travelers who see the world in various ways. Deterred by the idea of committing to a book club? Don't be! This will be a laid-back group that welcomes all levels of participation. We'll meet the second Wednesday of each month at 11:30 a.m. in the Raytheon Room.

On September 10, we'll discuss Tracks: A Woman's Solo Trek Across 1700 Miles of Australian Outback by Robyn Davidson. If you have questions, contact Rachel Sideman-Kurtz at rsideman@minlib.net.



WHEN THE CHEERING STOPS

Natick author David Ostrowsky will speak about his new book, "Game Over or Game On?" which focuses on how former professional athletes fare in retirement. What actually happens to them once the clock runs out and the hefty paychecks stop rolling in? Ostrowsky, a Brandeis University graduate, is a marketing writer and has served as a sportswriter for the MetroWest Daily News, the Jewish Advocate, and the Patriots Gamesday Magazine.

POETRY WORKSHOP
Thursday, September 18 2:00 p.m.

AN INTRODUCTION TO THE iPHONE or iPAD

What are all those little pictures on my iPhone, and how do I use them? If you can make a call and send a text, but are baffled by the rest of your iPhone or iPad, this is the class for you. We'll discuss how to find and download apps (and which ones you might like to have), how to save on battery life, and other basics of these versatile and complex devices.

Monday, September 22 2-3 p.m.

AN INTRODUCTION TO GMAIL

Many people have switched to Gmail from other types of email accounts. Find out how Gmail divides email into different categories so you don't get as much "junk mail" in your inbox. Learn how to organize your email using stars, folders, and labels, as well as how to customize your account so that it looks and functions in ways that suit you. We will also take a brief look at Google Drive and its uses.

Thursday, September 25 10-11 a.m.

WHAT TO LOOK FOR IN OUR IMPROVING REAL ESTATE MARKET
Tuesday, Sept. 30 7-9 p.m.

Local realtor Brian Cichella will discuss the leading indicators for an improving home selling and buying market. These include more new home starts, larger inventories of previously owned homes, sold prices closer to asking, lower days on market, multiple bid situations, and stabilized mortgage rates. The presentation will also examine the reported surge of new home sales and purchase prices vs. what is real in our area market.

EMERGING SCIENCE: THE PROSPECTS FOR LONGER HEALTHY LIFESPANS
Tuesday, October 7 7:30 p.m.

The presentation will cover the general state of the sciences relative to aging, the close relationships between health and aging, laboratory approaches that have extended the lives of animals, and the biological pathways that promote health and longevity. Learn about new, practical things to do to be among those who desire to live healthily ten to twenty years longer than average.

Vincent Giuliano, Ph.D., is the chief researcher and publisher of the popular blog agingsciences.com and has published over 400 articles on key topics in the aging sciences in the last seven years.

BAKERS NEEDED FOR OCTOBER BOOK SALE

The Friends of the Wayland Library are looking for bakers to contribute confections to the fall and spring book sales. Baked goods attract sweets lovers of all ages to the sale and add substantially to the bottom line. Bakers will receive a reminder call the week before the sale, which will be held on October 24-26. If you're interested in being added to our call list, please contact Anne Heller at (508) 358-4515.

INFO@YOUR FINGERTIPS— LIBRARY ONLINE RESOURCES WORKSHOP

There is a world of information you can access through the library without leaving home! Did you know you can do genealogical research or look for that newspaper article you read last year, but failed to clip when you had the chance? You can download whole books, listen to music, and even learn a language or two! There are resources for young ones, too, that can help with homework or teach them to read. For adult novel readers, we have databases to help you find your next good read. Come with your specific interest or research question. This session will introduce you to what we have to offer and how to access these resources on your own. This workshop is limited to 10 people. To reserve your spot, register through our online calendar at waylandlibrary.org.

Monday, September 8 7 p.m.
in the Raytheon Room.

BECOMING A VOLUNTEER TUTOR

Have you ever thought about tutoring someone in English? We always have a waiting list of learners who need help. Program Director Ginny Steel is currently enrolling prospective tutors for a course that starts on October 22. The class will meet at the Wayland Library on five consecutive Wednesday evenings from 6-9 p.m. The training is free, although it is necessary to purchase a textbook for about $20. Volunteers will work one-on-one with adults who want to improve their abilities to speak and write English. For more information or to enroll in the tutor-training course, you can phone Ginny Steel at 508-358-7517 or email her at virginia @thesteels.com.

Great Decisions CHINA'S FOREIGN POLICY

China has gone to great lengths to emphasize the "peaceful" nature of its meteoric rise. Yet few dispute that China is the dominant regional power in Asia – and in recent years Beijing began to flex its muscles regionally in order to advance its strategic interests. What does the rapid rise of this new superpower mean for other countries in the region, and are there potential points of conflict with the U.S. as it "pivots" to Asia?

AUTHOR EVENT WITH RITA ZOEY CHIN

Sunday, October 19, starting at 2:15 p.m.

Join Rita Zoey Chin, Wayland resident, poet, and author of the bestselling memoir, "Let the Tornado Come" for a "Waking to the Present Moment" walk and reflections. Rita will speak about her book and about the moment in nature when her life changed. She will then lead us outside in a quiet, contemplative walk, inviting people to pay attention to the moment, with the idea that, in the words of Mary Oliver, "the world offers itself to your imagination." Afterward, there will be time to write about what you experienced and a chance to share what you've written. Rita will answer questions about her memoir, and conclude with a book signing--so please remember to bring your copy of the book! This event is co-sponsored by the library and Wayland Walks.

Ed Mascari Jazz Trio featuring Rebecca Wellons

Sunday, October 26 3-4 p.m.

Jazz pianist Ed Mascari has teamed up in a jazz trio with Marliese Ballon and Wayland Middle School Band Director Rebecca Wellons. They will present a concert featuring a selection of originals plus jazz tunes from the American Songbook (think "Night and Day," "The Way You Look Tonight," "Wave," "Someday My Prince Will Come," and "Take Five") in a live performance in the library's Raytheon Room. These performers have so much fun playing together that audiences of adults and young people find themselves smiling and tapping their feet!

AN INTRODUCTION TO GMAIL

Monday, October 27 7-8 p.m.

Many people are switching to Gmail. Find out how Gmail divides email into categories to reduce junk mail in your inbox. Learn how to organize your email using stars, folders, and labels, as well as how to customize your account so that it looks and functions in ways that suit you. We will also take a brief look at Google Drive.

GOOGLE CALENDAR WORKSHOP

Wednesday, November 12 2-3:30 p.m.

Would you like to access your calendar from any computer or smartphone? Learn how to create a Google calendar that offers reminders of upcoming events. You can layer calendars to see work, personal, and other calendars simultaneously or one at a time. You can share your calendar with friends or family to facilitate event planning (if they have a Gmail account). Bring your calendar of upcoming events to create a calendar you can use right away! Limited to 5 students. A Gmail account is required to participate. Sign up under "Events" at www.waylandlibrary.org, or call us at 508-358-2311.

WHS YEARBOOKS NOW ONLINE

Feeling nostalgic but you can't find that darn yearbook anywhere? Want to refresh your memory on someone who wouldn't be in your edition? Doing some local-history research? Just go to our home page, where you'll find pretty much every edition of the Reflector from 1947 to now (including two years of its predecessor, the Chatterbox). Look for the link at the bottom of the left column. When you find the year you want, view it in your browser, download it as an ebook, or even open it as a searchable PDF—which means you can finally find Nick from study hall who was so cute but whose last name is now a total blank. Then you can track him down on Facebook and—but that's another story. And it starts at the Wayland Library!

GREAT DECISIONS U.S. Trade Policy

America's foreign policy tools are not limited to sanctions, treaties or military campaigns – they also include the sales pitch. The logic behind this pitch, or "economic statecraft," is simple: promote the benefits of democracy and the free market. In so doing, the U.S. will gain valuable and stable partners, both in business and in diplomacy. Now, as China and other nations battle the U.S. for global influence, Secretary Kerry has taken the reigns as a free market matchmaker. Join us for a discussion of U.S. foreign trade policy on October 17 from 9:15 a.m.– 11:30 a.m.

The Great Presenters Series
THE HUMAN RACE – AND THE TECHNOLOGY RACE
Tuesday, November 4 7:30 p.m.

Has technology advanced beyond our ability to control it? Some believe this is a good thing and will lead to a marvelous "Singularity," a point where self-replicating machinery will largely replace human labor, freeing humans to pursue whatever they want. Others are less sanguine about the impacts of technology, warning that the earth and the human race itself may be headed for disaster. George Gantz will lead a discussion on these profound questions.
George Gantz is a retired business executive with a life-long passion for mathematics, science, philosophy and theology.

ACUPUNCTURE FOR YOUR PETS
Tuesday, November 18 7-9 p.m.

She will also discuss some of the more common ailments it can treat. Dr. Zorgniotti is a veterinarian at the Phoenix Veterinary Hospital of Wayland. She is certified in Veterinary Acupuncture and Veterinary Food Therapy.

The Great Presenters Series
"PERSPECTIVES ON CREATING A BETTER ENERGY FUTURE"
December 2 7:30 p.m.

Phil Giudice will reflect on how we move toward a better energy future from the perspective of nearly 40 years in the energy field. The presentation will provide a broad overview of our current energy circumstances, as well as projections for what the future holds. He will focus on changes he has observed, as well changes he has been able to help make happen. He will discuss energy challenges and opportunities, including why our consumption choices matter, current and future innovations, and transformative opportunities.
Phil Giudice is currently the CEO of Ambri, a startup commercializing a new battery technology invented at MIT. He served as Massachusetts Undersecretary of Energy and Commissioner of the Department of Energy Resources during Governor Patrick's first term.

Raytheon Room Exhibit

SUDBURY VALLEY NATURE PHOTOGRAPHERS

This year's annual fall exhibit features work by sixteen local photographers and represents a wide variety of nature subject matter. Exhibitors come from throughout MetroWest, and include Betsy Moyer, Raj Das, Wayne Arthur Hall, Carol Walsh, Barbara Peskin, Katherine O'Hara, Hendrik Broekman, Steve Gabeler, Bob Cooke, Anne Umphrey, Joan Chasan, Terri Ackerman, Mark Hopkins, Sue Abahamsen, and Arlene and Henry Winkleman.

A Meet the Artists Reception will be held on Sunday, November 9, which will include several brief "gallery talks" by some of the exhibiting photographers, beginning at 3:30.

Sign up for the following classes under "Events" at www.waylandlibrary.org, or call us at 508-358-2311

GOOGLE CALENDAR WORKSHOP

Wednesday, November 12 2-3:30 p.m.

Would you like to access your calendar from any computer or smartphone? Learn how to create a Google calendar that offers reminders of upcoming events. You can layer calendars to see work, personal, and other calendars simultaneously or one at a time. You can share your calendar with friends or family to facilitate event planning (if they have a Gmail account). Bring your calendar of upcoming events to create a calendar you can use right away! Limited to 5 students. A Gmail account is required to participate.

AN INTRODUCTION TO THE iPHONE or iPAD

Monday, November 17 2-3 p.m.

If you can make a call and send a text, but are baffled by the rest of your iPhone or iPad, this is the class for you. We will discuss how to use airdrop, organizing the icons on your screen, how to download an app, saving on battery life, and other basics of these versatile and complex devices. Remember to bring your iPhone or iPad to class.

AN INTRODUCTION TO GMAIL

Thursday, November 20 2-3 p.m.

Many people are switching to Gmail. Find out how Gmail divides email into categories to reduce junk mail in your inbox. Learn how to organize your email using stars and labels, as well as how to customize your account so that it looks and functions in ways that suit you. We will also take a brief look at Google Drive and Calendar.

NEEDLEWORK GROUP

Our needlework group will meet on Wednesdays, November 5 and December 3, at 10 a.m. We'll socialize, work on hand projects (no machines), share ideas, and explore resources.

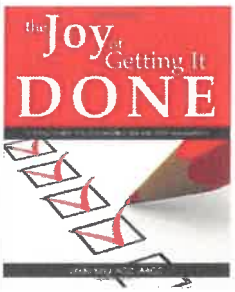
EXPERIENCE WIGHT RICHARDSON:A LOCAL WOMAN'S VOICE FROM THE 18TH CENTURY: THE REVOLUTIONARY WRITINGS OF EXPERIENCE
January 11 2:15-3:30 p.m.

We hear about men marching off to war in the 18th century to secure American independence, making momentous decisions at Town Meetings, and serving in town government. A few even attended college and entered the professions. But what about the women who made up at least half the population? What were their thoughts and actions? Fortunately, we can gain some insight through the diary of Experience Wight Richardson, who lived in colonial Sudbury (today Wayland and Sudbury) during the turbulent years that led up to the American Revolution. Jane Sciacca will share Mrs. Richardson's story in a discussion of women's lives in colonial times.



Joy of Getting It Done with Linda King
Tuesday, January 13 7:30-9 p.m.

Linda King, a trained and certified Life Coach and ADHD Coach, will present "The Joy of Getting It Done" at the library. King's book, "The Joy of Getting It Done–10 Tools to Help You Stop Wasting Time and Start Managing It" is an outgrowth of this presentation, which she has given to many audiences over the years. The book was developed as a take-home resource for people who had attended her talks and wanted more information. Many of her clients and audience members struggle with procrastination, daunting projects, and the lack of ability to create workable routines in their lives. King tries to help them find many simple ways to make change easier. She hopes that attendees leave her talks feeling hopeful and empowered!

A LIBRARY BOOK GROUP FOR EVERY TASTE

The Armchair Travel Book Group discusses Better Than Fiction: True Travel Tales from Great Fiction Writers on Wednesday, December 10 at 11:30 a.m.

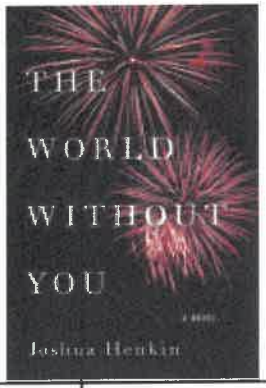
On Friday, December 12, the Noontime Book Group looks at How It All Began by Penelope Lively. "A writer of rare wisdom, elegance, and humor, Lively is a consummate storyteller whose gifts are on full display in this masterful work." (Publisher's description)

Joshua Henkin's The World Without You is on the board for the Evening Book Group on Monday, January 5 at 7 p.m. "Set against the backdrop of Independence Day and the Iraq War, The World Without You is a novel about sibling rivalries and marital feuds, about volatile women and silent men, and, ultimately, about the true meaning of family." (Publisher's description)



All book groups are open to anyone, no sign-up required. All books are available at the library.

Wayland Middle School
Art Lab

Through the arts, we can leave our mark on our world. Wayland Middle School's Art Lab tests this hypothesis on a daily basis. Over the course of their middle school experience, sixth-, seventh-, and eighth-graders respond to three essential questions: How do we make marks? Why do we make marks?
How do we leave our mark? This month's exhibit represents the mark-making of our talented and expressive students, completed over the course of the first semester.
